1. How long have you been teaching English in primary school? *

5 years

2. Based on your teaching experience, what are the main difficulties you face in teaching English to primary school students? *

Not enough exposure of English outside class. Students are not familiar with the language.

3. What about teaching English do you find most frustrating, and why? *

Students lost their enthusiasm when learning. It can affect other students too.

4. What factors make teaching English challenging in your school environment? *

Limited time in learning english lesson.

5. Can you describe any negative experiences you had while teaching English? *

It takes some time to use or to access facility like audio visual. So if we don't prepare it, we don't know if the facility is working or not.

6. What ongoing problems in teaching English do you often think about solving, and why? *

Trying to make the lesson related to daily life. It might be easier for students to understand if the lesson is about what is around us.

7. What challenges do you experience when using the English teaching materials? *

The materials in students book need more pictures and interactive activity. So I have to spend some time to adapt to the material so it can be easy for students

8. How would you describe the size of your classes, and how does it impact your teaching? *

No more than 30 students in each class. But I some times it is hard to maintain students attention. Some students may be noisy, and will distract classroom activity.

9. What challenges do you encounter when teaching English in classrooms with a large number of students? *

Try to keep students attention to the lesson.

10. How would you describe your students' motivation in learning English, and how does it affect your teaching? *

It is different from every students. Students like to do interactive activity, or maybe games. Some students understand the lesson quickly, and some of them do not. So I have to do different ways of teaching to make it exciting.
